

This classes are used for managing product inventory, purchase and sell details.

User can manage product here.

User has to enter product name, type, quantity and price.

While Purchasing time, User has to enter quantity, price and customer name.

It will automatically count GST on product, purchasing date and order number.

Same in Selling product, automatic generates date and sale order number, also calculates valuation, total sell value and total purchase value.